Monitored Withdrawal from a Course

After the add/drop period has ended, students may withdraw from a course that they no longer wish to attend by completing a Monitored Withdrawal Request from in the office of the school offering the course. Forms need to be signed by student and the Instructor.

- Students must process the Monitored Withdrawal Request from within the first nine weeks of the term in the fall and spring. Because summer sessions vary in length, students should check the University's Academic Calendar for those deadlines.
- Students should check with the school offering the course for the last day to submit a Monitored Withdrawal Request form.
- If approved, a grade of "W" will be recorded on the student's transcript for that course. "W" grades do not count toward a student's degree or grade point average.
- There is no financial adjustment to student's tuition or fee obligations involved in withdrawing from courses, but withdrawing may jeopardize satisfactory academic progress, financial aid, and athletic eligibility.
